

No, do not lift the dominant classification from the LECs. LECs are clearly dominant in the marketplace and do not need the FCC to exempt them from rules allowing competition.